Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code section indicated above.

Unless specifically excepted, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) for each employee to whom you pay $100 or more during a calendar year. And, unless excepted, you are also liable for tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act for each employee to whom you pay $50 or more during a calendar quarter if, during the current or preceding calendar year, you had one or more employees at any time in each of 20 calendar weeks or you paid wages of $1,500 or more in any calendar quarter. If you have any questions about excise, employment or other Federal taxes, please address them to this office.

If your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

The block checked at the top of this letter shows whether you must file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax. If the Yes box is checked, you are only required to file Form 990 if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law provides for a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. This penalty may also be charged if a return is not complete. So, please make sure your return is complete before you file it.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Internal Revenue Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in Code section 513.

13. You claimed to be an organization described in section 509(a)(). Based on the information furnished, however, you are an organization described in section 509(a)(1) ~~because~~ you are a described in section 170(b)(1)(A)(). You will therefore be treated as an organization described in section 509(a)(1).
14. You claimed to be a foundation described in section 509(a)(). Based on information you submitted, however, you can reasonably be expected to qualify as an organization described in section 509(a)(). You will therefore be treated as a 509(a)() organization during an advance ruling period as indicated in this letter.
15. This determination is based on evidence that your funds are dedicated to the purposes set out in section 501(c)(3) of the Code. To assure your continued exemption, you should maintain records to show that funds are expended only for those purposes. If you distribute funds to other organizations, your records should show whether they are exempt under section 501(c)(3). In cases where the recipient organization is not exempt under section 501(c)(3), there should be evidence that the funds remain dedicated to the required purposes and that they will be used for those purposes by the recipient.
16. If distributions are made to individuals, case histories regarding the recipients should be kept showing names, addresses, purposes of awards, manner of selection, relationship if any to members, officers, trustees or donors of funds to you, in order that any and all distributions made to individuals can be substantiated upon request by the Internal Revenue Service. (Revenue Ruling 56-304, C.B. 1956-2, page 306)
17. Your tax exempt status is predicated on the understanding that the results of any research grants made for scientific purposes will be made available to the public on a non-discriminatory basis.
18. Evidence submitted with your application indicates that you may engage in lobbying activities. Your attention is called to the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Code which specifically prohibit lobbying as a substantial part of your activities.
- If you do not wish to be subject to the test of substantiality under section 501(c)(3), you may elect to be covered under the provisions of section 501(h) of the Code. This section establishes ceiling amounts for lobbying expenditures.
- The election provided in section 501(h) of the Code relating to lobbying by public charities may be made for all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976, by filing a statement with the Internal Revenue Service Center, 11001 Roosevelt Boulevard, Philadelphia, PA 19155 before the close of the first taxable year for which the election is effective.
19. Revenue Procedure 75-50, published in Cumulative Bulletin 1975-2, page 587, sets forth guidelines and recordkeeping requirements for determining whether private schools exempt from tax have racially nondiscriminatory policies as to students. You must comply with this Revenue Procedure to maintain your exempt status.
20. Since you are a social welfare organization contributions to you are not deductible by donors. You should advise contributors to that effect.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Teddy R. Kerr

People for the American Way Action Fund
Form 1024, Application For Recognition of Exemption
Part III, Question 3: Purposes and Proposed Activities

Statement in Support of Application for Exempt Status

Facts

The Fund has been established to function as an affiliate organization to Citizens for Constitutional Concerns, Inc., also known as People for the American Way (PFAW). As of the date of this application, the People for the American Way Action Fund (the "Fund") has been principally engaged in organizational matters. This has included the incorporation of the Fund as a District of Columbia not-for-profit corporation, the selection of a Board of Directors, the election of officers, formulating and adopting by-laws, and making plans for its future operations. The President of PFAW will appoint the Directors of the Fund.

The Fund, as it becomes fully active, will carry on and expand upon the public policy and advocacy work heretofore conducted by PFAW. PFAW was created under Delaware law in 1981. It is recognized for federal tax purposes as a public charity under sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.¹ A copy of the IRS determination letter dated June 28, 1983 recognizing the public charity status of the organization is attached as Exhibit D.

1. Statutory references are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

Also enclosed as Exhibit E is the IRS "no change" report of November 17, 1983 resulting from the examination of its operations.

Purposes

In accomplishing its purposes the Fund will:

- o Provide information to the general public on matters having a bearing on religious, human and civil rights of individuals and the extent to which they may be threatened by any current or proposed executive, judicial or legislative action.
- o Communicate with members of the public as to how they might act to defend their rights secured by the Constitution of the United States.
- o Communicate with members of state and federal executive departments and with members of state and federal legislatures on matters deemed to be threats to human and civil rights.
- o Monitor developments around the country on matters which may affect religious, human and civil rights secured by the U.S. Constitution.
- o Cooperate with other interest groups and coalitions on matters of common interest.
- o Conduct research on public policy issues relating to First Amendment rights, the results of which will be made available to the general public and/or to members of the Congress in connection with the Fund's public policy and advocacy work.

The Fund has solicited support from the general public by means of one advertisement placed in the New York Times on September 23, 1984. A copy of this advertisement is enclosed as Exhibit F. The Fund has also solicited support by means of a direct mail letter dated September, 1984. A copy of this letter is enclosed as Exhibit G.

Legal Precedents

1. The objectives and intended methods of the Fund, including substantial advocacy activities, qualify it for social welfare organization status. Section 501(c)(4) of the Code provides for the exemption of civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare. Section 1.501(c)(4)-1(a)(2) of the regulations states that an organization is operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare if it is primarily engaged in promoting in some way the common good and general welfare of the people of the community. Section 1.501(c)(4)-1(a)(2)(ii) of the regulations states that a group may qualify as a social welfare organization under section 501(c)(4) even though it is an "action" organization engaged in attempts to influence legislation if it otherwise qualifies under that section.²

The IRS has consistently recognized the exempt status under section 501(c)(4) and the applicable regulations of organizations formed to carry out their exempt purposes through the development and implementation of programs designed to have an impact on community, state or national policy-making, including legislation. For example, the IRS, in Rev. Rul. 556, 1968-2 C.B. 216, recognized the exempt status under section 501(c)(4) of an organization formed to educate the public regarding an activity that was not lawful at the time the organization was created.³ The organization sought changes in the law specifically to legalize the activity. To achieve its objectives, it circulated speeches, reprints and pamphlet material concerning the activity and lobbied for legislation to the activity. In recognizing the exempt status of the organization, the IRS stated that:

An organization that is organized and operated to inform the public by educational methods on a subject of public interest and concern may be exempt under section 501(c)(4) of the Code even though the subject evokes controversy and even though the organization advocates a particular viewpoint and seeks changes in the law to reflect such viewpoint. The education of the public on such a subject is deemed beneficial to the community because society benefits from an informed citizenry. The seeking of legislation germane to the organization's programs is recognized by the regulations as a permissible means of attaining social welfare purposes. (Emphasis added.)

In Rev. Rul. 76-81, 1976-1 C.B. 156, the IRS granted exempt status under section 501(c)(4) to an organization formed to educate the public on the subject of abortions, promote the rights of the unborn, and support legislative and constitutional changes to restrict women's access to abortions. In this case the IRS stated that:

The question of whether abortion laws should be restrictive or liberal is a matter of public concern in many communities. There are differences of opinion on this issue. Although the organization advocates the adoption of a particular position, its activities are nevertheless designed to increase the knowledge and understanding of the public on the entire subject. Thus, the organization is promoting in some way the common good and general welfare of the people of the community within the meaning of the regulations. (Emphasis added.)

In Rev. Rul. 71-530, 1971-2 C.B. 237, the IRS concluded that even direct approaches to Congress, without attempts to educate the public on an issue, qualified as social welfare activity within the meaning of section 501(c)(4). In that case the organization was formed to represent the public interest at legislative and administrative hearings on tax matters. It identified individuals it considered qualified to represent the general public in matters of tax policy -- e.g., members of the tax bar, public finance economists, teachers of accounting and tax law, and other tax specialists -- and alerted them as soon as issues arose in their field of expertise. The organization assisted them in preparing and publicizing their testimony at legislative and administrative hearings on these issues. In recognizing the exempt status of this organization under section 501(c)(4), the IRS said that:

Through presentations by qualified witnesses on pending or proposed tax legislation, the organization is promoting the common good and general welfare of the community by assisting legislators and administrators concerned with tax policy. Such activity helps the legislators and administrators form better judgments about the legislation.

These precedents have clear application to the Fund, and compel IRS recognition of its exempt status under section 501(c)(4) of the Code. As in the case of the organizations described in Rev. Rul. 68-656 and Rev. Rul. 76-81, the Fund's activities clearly will increase the knowledge of the general public on matters affecting their constitutional rights. And, as was the case in Rev. Rul. 71-530, the Fund's presentations before legislative bodies and administrative bodies on these matters will clearly help them form better judgments on legislative and policy issues before them.

2. A charitable organization can create a social welfare affiliate. The Fund will be an affiliate of PFAW, an organization exempt under section 501(c)(3), whose President will appoint the Fund's Board. The Fund will share the general goals of PFAW and will conduct advocacy activities that either could not be carried out by PFAW or would be subject to the limits of section 501(c)(3) and (h) on lobbying.

All expenditures of the Fund will be from non-deductible contributions, which will be raised primarily by direct mail solicitations. PFAW will not bear any expenses of the operation of the Fund, and adequate accounting and other administrative procedures will be established to insure that financial separation.

The relationship of PFAW and the Fund are consistent with that approved in the Supreme Court's recent decision in Taxation With Representation of Washington v. Regan, et al., 103 S.Ct. 1997 (1983). In that case, the Court squarely recognizes that a section 501(c)(3) organization (such as PFAW) has a right to create and control a section 501(c)(4) organization to function as the parent organization's alter ego in lobbying and advocacy activities and that the only restriction that may constitutionally be imposed on the relationship is that the entities be separately incorporated and that they keep adequate records to insure that tax deductible contributions are not used to pay for the affiliate's lobbying activities. See 103 S. Ct., 1997 n.6. PFAW and the Fund clearly will meet these criteria of separateness both as to structure and fiscal accounting, so the Fund is entitled to recognition as a separate entity exempt under section 501(c)(4).

Conclusion

The People for the American Way Action Fund clearly qualifies for exempt status under section 501(c)(4) of the Code.

People for the American Way Action Fund

Dear Member,

For the last four years, we have been doggedly researching, writing, and expressing our concern about the dangerous impact a group of radical religious leaders is having on American politics.

The result of their actions is evident in today's political events. Those who measure religious purity by legislative fealty to the fundamentalist political line have transformed political speech into a bully pulpit.

Now, in the midst of this crucial election year, the religion and politics issue has become the center of debate. And once again, PEOPLE FOR THE AMERICAN WAY is leading the battle.

Already, editorials by Norman Lear, our Founding Chair, and John Buchanan, our Chairperson, have appeared in newspapers, including USA Today and the New York Times. I was a guest on the "Today Show" and NBC's "Nightly News."

Many staff and friends of PEOPLE FOR THE AMERICAN WAY have countered extremist efforts with articles featured in hundreds of newspapers across the country.

All this has been the result of your continued, generous support. Your assistance provides the critically important resources needed to make our voices heard on national issues of concern to the American people.

We've expressed our alarm over religion's role in politics. We've stated that the issue is not entirely whether Ronald Reagan views his opponents as "sinners," or that Geraldine Ferraro doubts the President is a "good Christian."

We believe that such dialogue is totally inappropriate within the context of partisan political debate.

That has been our message all along. And it's gratifying to see more and more people becoming concerned about this issue. But to keep the discussion moving towards resolution, we must take the next step.

And that is why, with the approval of our National Board, I have authorized the Religious Liberty Project -- a multimedia campaign aimed at mobilizing a greater public response to attempts by extremists to erode our Constitutional separation of Church and State.

As part of this program, we have designed a new print ad. I've enclosed a rough artist's sketch for you to look over. This month we will be placing a final version of it in the New York Times.

(over please)

Our ad, which can reach a potential four million readers, will cost $25,000 for the first edition. And if we can raise an additional $150,000, we hope to place the same ad in newspapers across America.

But to do that, we need your help now!

I hope you'll take a few moments right now to make a special contribution to our PEOPLE FOR THE AMERICAN WAY ACTION FUND today.

The ACTION FUND has been created for the specific purpose of raising the money needed to carry out special programs like this National Ad Campaign.

And because the religion issue has become so hot politically, our "educational" tax status might have been questioned if we continued our campaign without the resources of a separate, segregated Fund.

Simply put, the ACTION FUND will allow PEOPLE FOR to proceed, during an election year, to monitor and respond to those who would try to replace democratic deliberation with fundamentalist indoctrination.

Of course, we will continue to remain a strictly nonpartisan organization. And we will not endorse any candidate or political party.

The strong support of members like you has allowed us to become a respected force in the fight for First Amendment freedoms. Because of our track record, I feel sure we can make a difference in setting the tone of the 1984 general election campaigns.

I think you'll agree with me that most Americans want to choose a President in November, not an "Evangelist-in Chief."

Please help us get our ad campaign moving quickly. And make your check payable to PEOPLE FOR THE AMERICAN WAY ACTION FUND today.

Let's work together to get our political process back on the right track.

Sincerely,

Anthony T. Podesta
Executive Director

P.S. Our decision on how far we can expand the number of newspaper ads depends on our ability to raise $150,000 by October 12. So please, help many more Americans see our message by sending your check to PEOPLE FOR THE AMERICAN WAY ACTION FUND today.

I look forward to hearing from you right away.
